IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.31661 of 2008
JAGDISH DAS
Versus
THE STATE OF BIHAR

02/ 20.08.2008 Heard.

The allegation is that while controlling the traffic movement on a road and while ordering the petitioner to move out his three wheeler the petitioner not only refused but also pulled out a pistol, which was not loaded and pointed it out at the constable informant, which was recovered.

The contention is that, in fact, the constable wanted some illegal benefits from the petitioner for allowing him to park the three wheeler, which was refused and as such he plant a false implication.
